Mission: We cultivate the intellectual, spiritual, and ethical promise of our students

Vision: To awaken courage and intellect – and peacefully transform the world

Friends' Central School Overview

Friends' Central School is an independent, coeducational Quaker day school founded in 1845 and serving approximately 800 students in Nursery through grade 12. Located in the Philadelphia suburbs, the School has two campuses. The Middle & Upper Schools are located just outside of West Philadelphia in Wynnewood, and the Lower School is on our Old Gulph Road campus in the heart of Wynnewood.

The exceptional faculty at Friends' Central offers a curriculum that cultivates the intellectual, spiritual, and ethical growth of our students. Our pedagogy is grounded in continuing revelation, reflection, integrity, and a willingness to accept responsibility. From Nursery to grade 12, our students participate in a process designed to foster creative, critical, and flexible thinking, along with compassion. As they transform from playful children to skilled, self-possessed teenagers, they are always intellectually curious and engaged thinkers. Friends' Central prepares graduates to succeed in college and in life.

Middle School Long-Term Substitute English Teacher

The Friends' Central Middle School seeks a dedicated, enthusiastic teacher of grade 8 English for a 10-week long-term substitute position beginning in late August 2020 and going through early November 2020. Qualified candidates will have experience teaching English, a bachelor's degree in a related field, and a demonstrated commitment to working with Middle School students. Although not required, an advanced degree is preferred. In addition to having a professional and educational background in the humanities, we seek someone who will:

- Be an enthusiastic teacher and supportive guide for Middle School-aged students
- Deliver the curriculum set forth by the school
- Manage classroom procedures and student behavior
- Incorporate technology and differentiating instruction

- Have the mindset and ability to work in partnership with parents
- Possess excellent communication skills, including through writing
- Enhance the School's commitment to diversity and inclusivity as outlined in our Diversity Statement
- Understand and be committed to the School's Quaker values and mission
- Be an engaged member of the Friends' Central faculty and wider community

Candidates should possess excellent interpersonal skills and an understanding of the developmental needs of Middle School students. This position will also involve being an advisor and facilitating Middle School activities (like clubs or community-building activities), so candidates are asked to share any relevant experience in those areas. Full-time Middle School faculty are also expected to perform supervisory duties (recess, lunch, etc.), supervise a club, facilitate a service project, support student affinity groups, and assist with other programmatic activities that are part of the school day.

Please note: Due to COVID-19, all applicants need to be prepared to teach in-person, in a hybrid schedule (togglng between in person or virtual learning), and completely virtually using Canvas & Zoom.
