

TAKE PART IN COMMUNITY LEARNING AND DISCOVERY AT FRIENDS' CENTRAL THIS YEAR!

Tuesday, October 29 • 7:00 pm

Dr. Steven Larson, this year's Distinguished Visiting Justice Leader, is cofounder and Executive Director of Puentes de Salud, a nonprofit organization that promotes the health and wellness of Philadelphia's rapidly growing Latinx immigrant population. Dr. Larson is also Assistant Dean for Global Health Programs and an associate professor in the Department of Emergency Medicine at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. The event is free and open to the public, but registration is required. Online registration will be available shortly.

Monday, November 25 • 6:30 pm

A Night Out in the Classroom is a special opportunity for parents and guardians to become Friends' Central students for just one night. Teachers from the three divisions will offer classes designed just for you! Revisit your interest in art, current events, or literature or discover a new passion. Registration information will be available in October.

Thursday, January 16 • 7:00 pm

Join us for a special parenting evening with Dr. Katherine Dahlsgaard, Clinical Director of the Anxiety Behaviors Clinic in the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Behavioral Science at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Dr. Dahlsgaard specializes in behavioral and cognitive psychology and is a frequent lecturer and guest speaker who has published widely in scientific journals, books, and mainstream media on the topics of child development, psychopathology, and mental health. This event is sponsored by the FCS Home and School Association; registration information to come in December.

Wednesday, March 18 • 7:00 pm

This year's Distinguished Visiting Humanities Speaker is Daniel Immerwahr '98, author and associate professor at Northwestern University, specializing in 20th-century U.S. history within a global context. His recent book, How to Hide an Empire: A History of the Greater United States, is described by the New York Times as "wry, readable, and often astonishing." His first book, Thinking Small, offers a critical account of grassroots development campaigns launched by the United States at home and abroad. This evening is free and open to the public, but registration is required. Online registration will be available in February.

Stay tuned for information about this year's Distinguished Visiting Scientist, who will be coming in April 2020 to visit with students and deliver an evening lecture that will be open to the public.
